

Mary's meals

The Backpack project is a simple way of helping children from poor families in countries like Malawi and Liberia get to school. Very often the parents of the children Mary's meals support cannot even afford to buy the basic things like pens, paper, even suitable clothes for their children to wear to school. And so their children miss out on school and the education that can help them escape from the poverty when they grow up. This is a wonderful opportunity for our parish to make a real difference to the future of these children. Most people will already have many of these items at home.

If anyone would like to become involved please find the information at the back of church. If you wish to buy a backpack and fill it with the items required, that would be fantastic. However, you may prefer to donate either the bag or any of the items from the 'Wanted' list and we will do the rest. Second hand clothing/uniform items are perfectly acceptable provided that they are in good condition.

Donations can be left at Church or St Anne's school. School donations no later than 18/7/13, Church donations no later than the first Sunday in August.

Quiet During Services

It is a strength of our parish communities that we are friendly and welcoming. We do need to be aware however that during the Mass, we are in the presence of Christ in a special way. Please help us to create a quiet, respectful, and prayerful atmosphere during services in both churches.

There is an element of surprise in each parable, whether concerning the manner of finding or who is to be found in God's reign. A further surprise is that the resultant joy leads to giving up all else. It is a paradoxical path to happiness. When it finds you, any instinct to hoard this treasure evaporates; what surfaces instead is the desire to divest oneself of everything.

The metaphors of the treasure and pearl break down, however, when they imply that the reign of God can be bought and owned. The startling message Jesus preaches is that happiness in God's reign cannot be purchased in any way – not by good deeds, nor with any other commodity. Rather, it is an astonishing free gift, attainable by all. While it cannot be bought, it costs everything. The price is not paid out of obligation or guilt but is a totally free self-surrender to irresistible joy. This is an old story, not to be kept locked in a storeroom but meant to be told anew by each who has been set free by joy.

PRAYING WITH SCRIPTURE

Give thanks for the ways you have been surprised by joy.

What do you ask for as the Holy One offers to give you your heart's desire?

Ask the Spirit's help to let go of whatever stands in the way of your self-surrender to lasting joy.

Lourdes Pilgrimage

The final amount of £449 for those sharing a room or £599 for those having a single room is now due for the Lourdes pilgrimage. Please make cheques out to 'Parish of St. Aidan's and hand them in to the parish office by August 3rd. If you have not yet given in a copy of your passport, we need that asap too!

St Agnes' Little Church

SURPRISED BY JOY

What would make you most happy? If given the chance, would you ask for an understanding heart, as Solomon did in today's first reading and which the disciples claim to have at the end of today's gospel? Is happiness something to be sought or does it find you? There is no end to "how-to" books and websites that tout surefire steps to achieve happiness. The American novelist Nathaniel Hawthorne, however, reminds us that "happiness is a butterfly, which, when pursued, is always just beyond your grasp, but which, if you will sit down quietly, may alight upon you".

Today's gospel offers three short parables about how one attains not only happiness but the even deeper gift of lasting joy. In the first instance, a person unexpectedly finds buried treasure. Perhaps he is digging a well or a hole for a fence post, when suddenly he strikes a hoard of coins left behind by a previous owner who, for some reason, was unable to reclaim it. The digger is likely a poor person, a hired day labourer, at the bottom of the social scale. The parable emphasises how overjoyed he is at this unexpected find that will change his life. With reckless abandon he sells all he has in order to acquire the field with its treasure,

The second parable takes us to the other end of the social spectrum. A merchant in search of find pearls would have been a rich man, most likely making his money on the backs of the poor divers in his employ. Merchants are generally depicted negatively in the Scriptures, as avaricious and corrupt. The surprise is that even such persons as this could come upon the reign of God and be moved to sell all they have for this pearl of great price.

If there is discomfort among the hearers of Jesus' parables that both a poor peasant and a rich merchant could be found in the reign of God, a third parable, about a net that pulls in all kinds of fish, asks disciples to suspend judgement about who is wicked and who is righteous, leaving the sorting to God's angels at the end of the age. There are many verbal and thematic similarities here to the parable of the weeds and wheat. The parable is also evocative of the call of the first disciples to be fishers of people, for which they abandon all else.
