A Blessing in the Dust

Knowing when to stay, knowing when to leave: this is one of the most challenging invitations for discernment that we will ever encounter. There are times for leaning into the resistance that meets us; times when God calls us to engage the difficulty and struggle that will shape and form us in a way that ease and comfort never can. There is ground that becomes holy only when we remain long enough to see the blessing that can emerge from struggle, that shimmers through only after the dust, kicked up by the struggle, finally begins to settle.

And then there are times for leaving; times when—as Jesus counsels his disciples—the holy thing to do is to shake the dust from our feet and leave behind a place that is not meant for us. This blessing is for those times.

*You thought the blessing would come in the staying;
in casting your lot with this place, these people;
in learning the art of remaining, of abiding.*

*And now you stand on the threshold again.
The home you had hoped for, had ached for, is behind you—not yours, after all.
The clarity comes as small comfort, perhaps, but it comes:
illumination enough for the next step.*

*I promise you there is a blessing in the leaving, in the dust shed from your shoes as you walk toward home—
not the one you left but the one that waits ahead,
the one that already reaches out for you in welcome, in gladness for the gifts that none but you could bring.*

SHARe KNOWSLEY

When your life is in danger and you have to flee for safety.....

When you leave everything behind and have to make a treacherous journey.....
When you finally arrive in the UK with only the clothes you are wearing, it's freezing cold, you are not allowed to work and you are not given any money at all, life can seem pretty grim and you can feel like the universe has forgotten you.

CAN YOU HELP! A donation of £15 would purchase a pair of trainers or a warm fleece or a pair of jeans. £10 would purchase a pack of underwear. £5 would pay for a pack of socks.

Please help by making a donation into one of the refugee boxes in the church porch. We are also accepting nearly new young men's small or medium clothing which can be dropped off in the Lady chapel in the church

Thank you for all your support.

PLEDGES

Thank you to all of you who handed in your pledge form. We are grateful for and overwhelmed by your generosity. If you would still like to hand in a pledge form, please do so. We will be sending final figures to the consultants soon, but are still able to add to that.

As you know, these pledges are our opportunity to show our commitment to the project. And remember, at this stage it is a pledge. We are not asking for any money right now. There are still pledge forms available at the back of the church with envelopes. Please collect one if you need one.

As always, thank you for your continued support and prayers!
