A thread runs through all three readings today: the call to participate in the mission comes from divine initiative. Amos protests that he never belonged to a guild of prophets, nor ever wanted to be a prophet. He was a simple shepherd tending his flocks and his sycamore trees when God called him forth to prophesy. The reading from Ephesians highlights that it is by God's choice that believers, both Jews and Gentiles, belong to God and share the good news. In the gospel, it is Jesus who summons the Twelve, and send them on mission. Christian missionaries are not self-appointed. The call to mission is part and parcel of every Christian's baptismal call. The Twelve symbolize how the whole renewed people of God participate in the mission, bringing healing and restoration to any who will welcome a needy bearer of good news.

Praying with Scripture

- How does self-sufficiency impede the proclamation of the gospel?
- As you share the gospel with others, what do you let go of and what do you receive?

- Barbara E Reid

Fourth Dimension Shop

Do you have a couple of hours free during the week? If so the Fourth Dimension Shop in the village is in need of new volunteers and would love to hear from you. The shop is an ecumenical charity founded to raise money through the sale of goods and refreshments to assist in developing countries and to meet the needs of our own area. If you are interested in helping, please contact:

Needy Missionaries

In today's Gospel, Jesus' disciples are sent out on their first foray in mission. Missionary journeying is never solitary; it is necessarily a communal endeavour. Jesus imparts to them his authority over unclean spirits and sends them out in pairs. He then gives them very specific instructions about what they are to pack – nothing! He does not say to travel lightly. He insists they take nothing with them, except a walking stick and sandals for their feet, just as the fleeing Israelites did at the exodus. As they proclaim liberation, they are to take no food, no bag, no money, and no change of clothing. They are to go completely empty-handed.

This is a totally different model of mission than one in which the persons sent consider themselves to have a whole cache of "goods" to share with people who have nothing. It's just the reverse. A Christian missionary is to go out needy and vulnerable, so that there can be a mutual exchange of gifts between missionaries and the people to whom they are sent. Missionaries are to put on the clothes of others and eat whatever the local people share, thus becoming one with those with whom they share the good news.

Sharing the Gospel is always a two-way street. The message preached in such an exchange is that of a crucified and risen Christ, who makes apparent that God's power works through vulnerability and mutuality. These kinds of exchanges do not take place in an instant. Jesus instructs his disciples to stay in one home so that the relationships can deepen and grow. It is also a warning not to look around for the best accommodations. A missionary is content to share whatever is offered.

Jesus warns his disciples that not all will accept the gospel message. Wherever there is sustained hostility toward them, the disciples are to "shake the dust" from their feet and move on. Christian missionaries are ready to experience tribulation, but they are not looking for it.

a simple solution
to world hunger

Mary's meals

The Backpack project is a simple way of helping children from poor families in countries like Malawi and Liberia get to school. Very often the parents of the children Mary's meals support cannot even afford to buy the basic things like pens, paper even suitable clothes for their children to wear to school. And so their children miss out on school and the education that can help them escape from the poverty when they grow up. This is a wonderful opportunity for our parish to make a real difference to the future of these children. Most people will already have many these items at home.

If anyone would like to become involved please find the information at the back of church. For those of you who have do not have little ones anymore we are hoping to have lots of school uniforms/PE kits donated to add to the back packs. If you can fill a backpack/school bag with all the required items that would be fantastic, however any donations from the wanted list would be gratefully received. Second hand is fine as long as the item is in good condition.

Donations can be left at Church or St Anne's school. School donations no later then 20/7/12. Church donations no later then the first Sunday in August.

Lourdes Pilgrimage

The final payment for September's Lourdes pilgrimage is now due.

Please make cheques payable to St. Aidan's Parish and pass it in to the office as soon as possible. Your insurance must also be paid, or, if you have your own insurance, please notify us of the arrangements.

St Agnes parish BBQ

Please join us for the BBQ after 11am Mass this weekend!

Missing Parishioners...

If you have noticed somebody missing from Mass for a period of time, please let the office know. Sr. Margaret has designed a card to send out to people, telling them that they are missed and inviting them back. People stop coming to church for all sorts of reasons and it is nice for them to know that the community is thinking of them and praying for them.

Leaflet to Collect

There is a leaflet at the back of church 'Planning a Catholic Funeral' which has been produced for circulation to all parishioners by the Archdiocese. Please collect one on the way out of church.

Mass Cards

We now have a range of Mass cards available specifically for St. Agnes and St. Aidan's parishes. Our thanks go to Sr. Margaret for her beautiful designs. The cards can be admired and purchased in the Piety Stall at both St. Aidan's and St. Agnes.

Joint Parish Youth Club

The youth group is for those of secondary school age and meets on Thursday evenings in the Sr. Elizabeth meeting room at St. Agnes' from 7-9pm. Entrance is 50p and there are refreshments available to purchase. Please join us!

Quiet During Services

It is a strength of our parish communities that we are friendly and welcoming. We do need to be aware however that during the Mass, we are in the presence of Christ in a special way. Please help us to create a quiet, respectful, and prayerful atmosphere during services in both churches.

"Be Still and know that I am God"

God Has Chosen Me!

Before God he even made the world, God loved us and chose us. Before we were even born, God decided to adopt us into his own family. God has chosen us -- now it is up to us to say, "Yes." When we put our trust in Jesus, we become God's adopted children and he makes everything work out according to his plan for us.
