

Sunday 1st October 2023

First Reading: Ezekiel 18:25-28

When the sinner renounces sin, he shall certainly live

Responsorial Psalm:

Remember your mercy Lord

Second Reading:

St Paul to the Philippians 2:1-11

In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus

Gospel Acclamation:

If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him and we shall come to him

Gospel: Matthew 21:28-32

He thought better of it and went. Tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you

WOMEN IN THE BIBLE

Women in the Bible are often seen as marginal figures, their lives and interests flattened out by more dominant storylines of male characters

We invite you to come along to share their stories of faith in their ordinary lives over the course of six sessions. We will discover who they are and what their stories have to say to us in today's context.

Join us on Thursday 5th October 2023 7pm—9pm in Sr Elizabeth Kelly meeting room and fortnightly thereafter until 14th December 2023.

SHARE Knowsley

Do you have any unwanted large suitcases? The asylum seekers and refugees are looking for suitcases as they are not given much time to pack their belongings before they are moved on to their next destination

Thanking you in anticipation

Missing Parishioners

As parishioners we need to be aware that if we don't see anyone for a few weeks we should find out what has happened.

Sometimes it is due to the fact that a bus route has changed it's time and no longer ties in with the mass times.

Please contact the office as soon as possible if you become aware of anyone who has not been seen for a while and we will make arrangements for someone to keep in touch with them if they so wish.

Thank you!

Standing Order Offering Appeal

Thanks to all those who have begun Standing Order offerings through their banks. We really appreciate your support for the up-keep of the parish.

I would like to encourage those who are yet to take their forms to their relevant banks to kindly do so as soon as possible. There is also a simplified form at the back of the

A Change of Heart and Mind

“Lord, teach me your ways.” We have all joined the psalmist many times in our search for help to live each day guided by divine truth. [1] When we ask God to reveal His direction for us do we want to experience Him, or do we just want a formula for life? When we seek God just for a formula, too often we miss entering into a relationship with Him. Yes, He wants our obedience. But a beautiful thing about the Hebrew word we translate as ‘obey’ in English is that it is the same word in Hebrew for ‘hear’. It’s a hearing that brings response. What God wants is a relationship with us. He wants us to hear Him, know Him, and respond. [2]

‘In today’s gospel we are asked, “Which of the two did the will of his father?” ‘The question of ‘doing God’s will’ ultimately brings us to a place of metanoia i.e. change of mind and heart. This change of heart can take us in different directions, as can be seen in the decisions the two sons made. True metanoia is not about escaping the circumstances of our life but about engaging in those circumstances in a new and different way – God’s way. Metanoia opens us to see ourselves and each other as we really are in God.’ [3]

‘So how do we discover what is ours to do? First, we must go through a process of discernment. Christian discernment is not the same as decision making. Reaching a decision can be straightforward: we consider our goals and options and then we choose the action that meets our goals most effectively. Discernment, on the other hand, is about listening and responding to that place within us where our deepest desires align with God’s desire. As discerning people, we sift through our impulses, motives and options to discover which ones lead us closer to divine love and compassion for ourselves and other people and which ones lead us further away.’ [4]

The Dalai Lama said it well: “Every change of mind is first of all a change of heart.”

Thank you for your help

Thanks to all those who provide transport to and from the church to some parishioners who are in need of this service. May I also say many thanks all the Eucharistic Ministers who regularly administer the Eucharist to the elderly, sick and housebound parishioners in their homes or in various residential units. Your generosity and kindness very much appreciated. May God bless you!

Fr. Anton
