

Sunday 17th December 2023

First Reading:

Isaiah 61: 1-2.10-11

I exult for joy in the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

My Soul rejoices in my God

Second Reading:

St Paul to the Thessalonians 5: 16-24

May you all be kept safe, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord

Gospel Acclamation:

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor.

Gospel: John 1:6-8. 19-28

There stands among you, unknown to you, the one who is coming after me.

Posada

Our Posada journey has begun and our figures have spent their first week in the homes of parishioners across Huyton. Please continue to pray as we connect in this special way this Advent.

You can follow the figures' journey via Facebook and the display board at the beach if church.

Parish Whatsapp Group

Its wonderful to see so many parishioners connecting via the parish Whatsapp group. All those who worship here and their families are invited to be part of this link.

If you are interested please contact Brian Roberts on 07779328414.

This is a great tool to keep everyone informed of important events/services

Our hope is that this will bring more positive energy to our vibrant parish community.

A Wider Vision

'We all live with certain categories that make sense to us. We use them to try to make sense of people, circumstances, life, relationships and our understanding of God. Categories by their nature involve definitions, limitations and expectations. There's nothing wrong with that until those categories begin to close us off, narrow our vision and impoverish our life. At some point they always do. We've probably all experienced times when we've thought or said something like "I'm just not sure what to make of this," "I can't figure him/her out." In those times our categories aren't working. The person or situation doesn't fit within our boxes and definitions.

John is one of those people. The wilderness is one of those situations. They are outside the usual categories of the religious authorities of Jesus' day. The priests and Levites are sent to get some answers. When they come to the wilderness and to John with their categories, expectations, definitions and limits, they expect John to fit. He doesn't. He won't allow that. With each negation John refuses to let himself be boxed in or categorised. The priests and the Levites just don't get it. Their categories have kept them from seeing and knowing the one who already stands among them.

Sometimes our categories do that to us. They keep us from recognising the one who stands among us. What if we let the failure of our categories expand our vision? When people, situations, or even God no longer fit the definitions and expectations of our categories maybe it's time to look again, to open ourselves and to consider that there might be something more in the person in front of us and in the situation we are experiencing.' [1] Then we will experience the joy which St Paul speaks of: "Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God." 'This joy proceeds from our surrendering to the Love inside us, a Love that is bigger than we are and by choosing to stay in Love we will pray always.' [2] Love knows no categories; love expands our vision and 'when we recognise the love of God in everything, we will be truly grateful.' [3]

Missing Parishioners

As parishioners we need to be aware that if we don't see someone for a few weeks we should find out what has happened. Or it may be that you are unable to attend Church because you have been ill. In either case please contact the office as soon as possible and we will make arrangements for someone to keep in touch, if you so wish
