Praying with Scripture

- Talk with Jesus about the ways you see “outsiders.” What could turn your heart to see them as one of God’s beloved children?
- What names capture best for you the ever-expanding communion of love that is the Trinity. Try out a new name for the Three-in-One in your prayer.

Circles of Love

Go “only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel,” was Jesus’ instruction to the disciples when he first sent them out on mission. Later, when an Canaanite woman pleaded with Jesus to heal her daughter, he again declared that he “was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” His concern was to feed his own people and he did not see her as one of them. Her respectful and insistent response in word and gesture however, helped trigger a profound change in Jesus’ understanding of the scope of his mission. At the end of the gospel, he commissions his disciples to go everywhere, making disciples of all nations.

A similarly profound change happened in the life of the apostle Paul, who went from persecuting Christians who were reinterpreting the parameters of the family of God, to being the most ardent proponent of inclusion of all. By the time Paul writes to the community in Rome in the late 60’s, he is able to say all who are led by the Spirit are “children of God.” This same expression had been used of the Israelites. Paul presses the metaphor further, insisting that all these varied children of God are not just appendages to the family but are full and true heirs. Being a full member of the family and an heir means inheriting the pattern of life set by Jesus: a life of loving service that is costly but that ends in glorious transformation.

The relationship between parents and children who are full heirs only one metaphor by which to speak of the mysterious love of the Trinity. Augustine liked to speak of the three persons as, “Lover, Beloved and Love.” Hildegard of Bingen favoured “Fire, Burning and Flashing Forth.” One might name them “Eternal Giver, Receiver and Outburst of Joy.” There is no limit to the ways in we can speak of the profound mystery of the Three-in-One. Three persons are a communion of love that interweave each other in endless patterns of saving activity.

The first reading today assures us the mystery of Divine love is not something that remains nebulous and intangible. Rather, the saving activity of God is concrete and visible both in great moments and in the routines of everyday life. Jesus’ promise, “I am with you always,” assures all God’s Spirit-led children in every race and nation that the divine presence continues to create, save and vivify whenever we allow it free rein to draw us into the Trinity’s ever-expanding circles of love.

Missing Parishioners...

If you have noticed somebody missing from Mass for a period of time, please let the office know. Sr. Margaret has designed a card to send out to people, telling them that they are missed and inviting them back. People stop coming to church for all sorts of reasons and it is nice for them to know that the community is thinking of them and praying for them.

Rosary at St. Aidan's

The Rosary will be prayed on the 1st Sunday of the month at 4pm in St. Aidan's. All are welcome.

St. Agnes' Mission Boxes

Mission boxes are due to be emptied this month.

Catholic People's Weeks

Some of our events are for people of all ages – families with children, as well as people (of any age) without children. Others are for those aged 18 and over. Whichever you choose, you'll find food for thought, fun and friends.

In 2012, there are eleven events, varying between 2 and 7 days, on a range of themes. All our events – whether weekend, long weekend or week-long – offer the revitalising mixture of engaging talks and activities, prayer and socialising, in a community setting, that makes CPW so much valued by its members.

St Agnes Eucharistic Ministers and Readers
