Quiet During Services

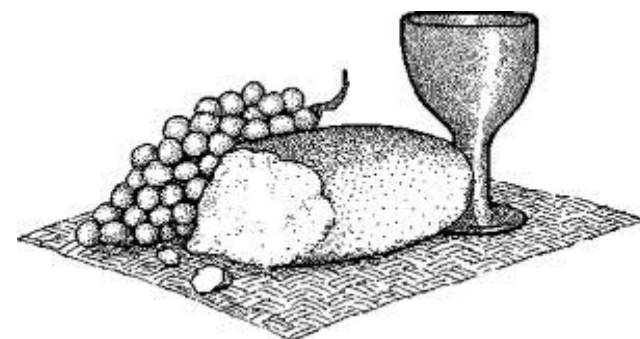

It is a strength of our parish communities that we are friendly and welcoming. We do need to be aware however that during the Mass, we are in the presence of Christ in a special way. Please help us to create a quiet, respectful, and prayerful atmosphere during services in both churches.

giving of our whole selves, body, mind and spirit, to the One who is the Source of all nourishment so that we may be broken open in love for the life of the world?

Such self-giving is not possible on our own. It is in the gathered assembly of believers, where we remember Christ's act in sacramental ritual, that we gain strength and give courage to one another to entrust ourselves to this kind of love. Just as the disciples will have another opportunity at the Last Supper, so we come to the Eucharistic table often, so that the ability to replicate Christ's action in our world becomes all the more natural as we remember again and again.

PRAYING WITH SCRIPTURE

- 1 How have you experienced the gift of Christ's love at Eucharist?
- 2 Reflect on, and give thanks for, those who have given of themselves for you.
- 3 Ask the risen Christ to show you how to "do this" in his memory today.

Car Boot Sale - 29 June 2013

This will be held in the St Agnes club car park be on the last Saturday of every month from 8am-12pm (£5 per table). You can ring the office to book a place. Please feel free to come and look around for a bargain!

Missing Parishioners...

If you have noticed somebody missing from Mass for a period of time, please let the office know. We have a card to send out to people, telling them that they are missed and inviting them back. People stop coming to church for all sorts of reasons and it is nice for them to know that the community is thinking of them and praying for them.

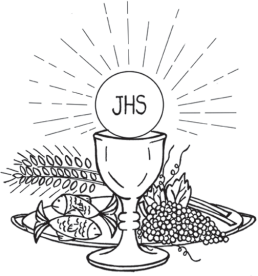

Rosary at St. Aidan's

The Rosary will be prayed on the 1st Sunday of the month at 4pm in St. Aidan's.

All are welcome.

My Body for You

Within the body of believers, church members give of themselves, body, mind and spirit, for one another and for the life of the world. In each of the ways in which the whole self is given in love, Jesus' act of self gift lives on.

In the world of Jesus, the expression "body and blood" was a way of speaking of the whole person. "Body," sōma connotes the whole physical person, while "blood," haima, is the life force, Today we speak of "body, mind and spirit" when referring to the whole self. This feast day celebrates the gift of Christ, whose entire self was entrusted to us, both in his ministry of preaching and healing and in his ultimate act of self-surrender in death. In the ancient formula handed on to Paul and then to us, which we repeat at Eucharist, we are invited to receive the body and blood of Christ that is for us and to "do this in remembrance" of him. "Do this" means not only to recall his words and actions at Eucharist but also to emulate his whole manner of life. Moreover, "remembrance" is not simply to call to mind but to make present again Christ's entrusting of himself to us in love.

In the gospel, we see how easy it is to miss the moment when such self-gift is asked of us. The Twelve and the crowd have been with Jesus all day as he has poured out himself in teaching about God's realm and has restored the bodies of those who needed healing. With the day drawing to a close, the peoples' physical needs now come to the fore. The Twelve suggest to Jesus that he send the crowd into the surrounding villages and farms to find lodging and provisions. Such a move would, indeed, give the hosts in the villages the opportunity to give of themselves in Eucharistic hospitality.

Instead Jesus directs the Twelve to their own resources. They are sure there is not enough and they quickly jump to the option of going out and buying provisions. Jesus, however, takes the five loaves and two fish, looks up to heaven, blesses, breaks and gives them to the disciples to set before the crowd. There is plenty for all and then some. To ask how it happened - Did Jesus actually multiply the loaves and fish, or was it a miracle in which everyone was prompted to share with others what they had brought? - is likely not the question the gospel writer wants us to ask. A better question is: How do we replicate the

Mary's meals

The Backpack project is a simple way of helping children from poor families in countries like Malawi and Liberia get to school. Very often the parents of the children Mary's meals support cannot even afford to buy the basic things like pens, paper, even suitable clothes for their children to wear to school. And so their children miss out on school and the education that can help them escape from the poverty when they grow up. This is a wonderful opportunity for our parish to make a real difference to the future of these children. Most people will already have many of these items at home.

If anyone would like to become involved please find the information at the back of church. If you wish to buy a backpack and fill it with the items required, that would be fantastic. However, you may prefer to donate either the bag or any of the items from the 'Wanted' list and we will do the rest. Second hand clothing/uniform items are perfectly acceptable provided that they are in good condition.

Donations can be left at Church or St Anne's school. School donations no later than 24/7/13, Church donations no later than the first Sunday in August. For more information contact amanda.badger@talktalk.net Have a look at the website to see the wonderful work they carry out: www.marysmeals.org
